FEES & CHARGES

The programs and activities listed in this brochure are sponsored by the Miller Advisory Council under an agreement with the Seattle Department of Parks and Recreation. For each participant registered in a class, 1.2% of the fee goes to the City of Seattle. Also, included in the fees is an .5% utility fee to help offset higher utility costs. Class and program fees listed in this brochure include sales tax where applicable in accordance with current provisions of the State Tax Code.

PAYMENTS

We accept checks, money orders, credit cards, and EXACT CASH ONLY. Please make check or money order payable to Miller Advisory Council. A $20 fee will be charged for all returned checks.

REFUND POLICY

A full refund is given to participants who register for a program that is cancelled by the Department for any reason. If a participant drops a class or program for which he or she is registered prior to the second meeting of a session, $5.00 or 10 % of the fee, whichever is greater, will be retained. This service charge is to offset the Advisory Council's cost in handling the refund. If a participant drops a class or program after the second meeting of a session, no refund will be given.

DIRECTIONS

2004 Budget: What it means for your community center

Due to City Budget cuts, and reduction in the 2004 budget the City Council adopted on November 18, 2002 will mean that your community center will be open fewer hours per week. Beginning January 2, 2004, basic operating hours for the center will be 1:00 PM – 9:00 PM. Each center will also be open an additional six hours on weekday mornings (see page 2 for Miller's hours,) and will continue to be open 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM on Saturdays and Noon—5:00 PM on Sundays in the fall, winter and spring. The center is available beyond these hours on a pre – arranged fee basis.

Customer Services Unit (CSU)

For information about Parks and Recreation facilities, recreational programs or scheduling anywhere in the City please call the customer service unit at 684-4075. For additional information about Senior Adult Programs call 684-4951 and for Specialized programs for children, youth and adults of special populations please call 684-4950.

Anti-Discrimination

As a matter of policy, law, and commitment, the Seattle Department of Parks and Recreation does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, marital status, sexual orientation, political ideology, age, creed, religion, ancestry, national origin or presence of any sensory, mental or physical handicap. (S.M.C. 18.12.280)

ADA Compliance
(American Disabilities Act)

Reasonable accommodation will be made on request for persons with disabilities. For sign language interpretation, auxiliary aids or other accommodation, call 684-4753 or TDD only 233-7061. If a class or activity is scheduled in an area that is not barrier-free for wheelchairs, we will make every effort to help you find a similar program in an accessible location.

Miller Advisory Council

We are looking for citizens in our community to join our advisory council. We are looking for positive and creative thinkers that can have an impact in our community. Our goal is to create scholarship opportunities for the low income through grant writing and other fundraising activities. For more information please call Gina Saxby at 684-4753.

The staff at Miller Community Center are pleased to serve you. We welcome comments and suggestions about what we can do to improve your Community Center.
